Kent. At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, holden at Maidstone in and for the County of Kent aforesaid, on Tuesday in the first Week next after the Close of Easter (that is to say) the Third Day of April, in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, before William Hendley, Esquire, John Hamilton, Esquire, and John Brome, Esquire, and other their Fellow Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace in the said County; and to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdemeanours in the same County committed.

THIS Court being informed that of late Years, at the usual Season of Resort at Tunbridge Wells in this County, several unlawful Games called Fairchance and Ace of Hearts, and other unlawful Games, contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are there carried on, exercised, and supported, and several Persons attend to support the same who are not known to have any other visible Way of living, to the great Disturbance and Damage of his Majesty's good Subjects resorting and frequenting the said Wells for their Health or other lawful Occasions: For preventing which Mischiefs and Disorders, and suppressing the said unlawful Games for the future; it is thought fit and ordered by this Court, that it be recommended to the several Justices of the Peace of this County of the Division wherein Tunbridge Wells lye, or who shall be there residing, to assemble and meet together, as often as there shall be Occasion, and to take and use such lawful Means as may be most effectual for preventing any of the said unlawful Games at the Places aforesaid, or any Riots or Routs occasioned thereby; and the Constables, Borsholders, or other Peace Officers of the Parish of Speldhurst, and other Parishes in this County where Tunbridge Wells, or the Houses or Buildings thereunto adjoyning is or are situate, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting to the said Justices of Peace, as they, and every of them, will answer the contrary at their Peril: And the said Constables, Borsholders, and other Peace Officers are hereby further ordered to give publick Notice of this Order, by affixing Copies thereof in the most notorious Places at Tunbridge Wells aforesaid: And it is also further ordered by this Court, that this Order be printed and published in the London Gazette for the better Notification thereof, and that no Person may pretend Ignorance. By the Court,

David Fuller.
